Hancock Studied as Nova Building Site

Hancock County lunar test site is one of several locations under consideration for building location for the National Aeronautics and Space Administration's super Nova rocket.

Francis L. Williams, deputy director for future projects of NASA and recently named project engineer for Nova, first indicated the possibility of the being equal," he explained.

If this county were selected, Hancock County would mean considerable employment but not much more than 50 to 100 acres which might be supplied in the area now being acquired for the static test site. He noted that in the selection of Michoud's building already was available which is not the case in the Mississippi test site.

Francis L. Williams, deputy director for future projects of NASA and recently named project engineer for Nova, first indicated the possibility of the Hancock County test site for this purpose. He said no decision has been reached on the site for Nova building despite reports in Washington that the 12-million-pound thrust vehicle will follow Saturn at the Michoud plant.

He did confirm, however, that the monster rocket would be tested (first and second stages and possibly the third) at the Hancock site and launched from Cape Canaveral rather than Mississippi, New Orleans or anywhere else. He also said Michoud would have to be enlarged if Nova is to be built there.

Monsignor Moloney Succumbs in Dublin

Rt. Rev. Monsignor Martin Moloney, pastor of Our Lady of the Gulf Parish since 1958 under whose leadership the new parish elementary school was constructed, died Tuesday in Bon Succour Hospital, Dublin, Ireland, following a lengthy illness.

A pontifical requiem mass will be celebrated by Bishop Richard Galloway of the Natchez-Jackson diocese at 9:30 a.m. Friday at Our Lady of the Gulf for the late monsignor. Diocese and parish officials had not been notified of funeral plans at press time but it is expected burial will be in his family's cemetery in his native Ireland. Bishop Joseph B. Brundage will take part in the services here.

Monsignor Moloney had returned to Ireland late last spring following major surgery in New Orleans and had been hospitalized most of the time since then.

Known throughout the Catholic parishes of Mississippi as the "builder," he was transferred to this parish in August, 1958, from St. Joseph's Church in Greenville where he directed his energies to the construction of the new sanctuary considered among the best in the state. Plans for erection of Our Lady of the Gulf Parish School immediately became his prime task here. Construction started in the building following a successful fund raising drive and it opened for classes two years ago with an enrollment of 530 children. When he arrived he undertook the interior and exterior repainting and redecoration of the church and its air conditioning.

Born April 15, 1905, in Tuam County, Galway, Ireland, he was graduated from St. Patrick's College, Carlow, Ireland, and ordained there in 1930. He served as assistant pastor of Sacred Heart Church in Biloxi in the early 1930s, going later to Vicksburg for 10 years, then to Brookhaven as pastor of St. Patrick's there until 1948 when he was transferred to Greenville.

The monsignor was instrumental in the construction of the church.

News Briefs

OPPOSE TAX BILL

The Hancock County Chamber of Commerce in a wire sent by W. R. Gordon, president, to the chairman of the House ways and means committee expressed opposition to House Bill 747 on the ground excessive tax burdens would discourage location of trailers in Mississippi with the result adjoining states would attract them. Gordon noted local importance in view of the NASA test site.

JONES ACCREDITED

Valena C. Jones elementary and high school has received an all-clear accreditation for 1961-62 from the State Accrediting Commission. Lamar Fortenberry, coordinator of Negro education, yesterday notified Bay School Superintendent J. D. McCullough. This is the fourth year such rating has been achieved and local leadership was commended in the letter.

RETARDED GROUP MEETS

Hancock County Association for Retarded Children will hold its first meeting in the new Children's Center at the old hospital building on Carroll Avenue at 7:30 p.m. today with the public invited to attend. Classes for retarded children are to begin there as soon as renovation of the building is completed.

KENT TO SPEAK

Morton L. Kent, deputy administrator of the George C. Marshall Space Flight Center at Huntsville, Ala., will address the 14 coordinating committees for the local NASA program and their representatives at a meeting at 7:30 p.m. Wednesday, May 9, at Bay High School auditorium. Kent is liaison man for the various NASA projects.

VOTE BOND ISSUE

The board of supervisors Monday adopted the formal order calling for issuance of the $200,000 bond issue to finance road improvements and construction in Beat 5.

DES FETES VETERANS

Bay chapter 129, Order of the Eastern Star, entertained 15 patients from the Veterans Administration Hospital at Gulfport Tuesday with a party at the Clermont Harbor Methodist Church hall. Hostesses were Mrs. and Mrs. Frank Neelands, Mesdames Mary Penalver, Ruby Green, Viva Smith, John Boudreau, Harvey O'Farrell, Eva Ruler, assisted by E. G. Virgilio and Lena Cusano.

Methodist Clergyman Dies at 70

Rev. J. P. Bonaccarrere, 70, retired Methodist minister who served churches at Clermont Harbor, Lakeshore, Waveland and Pearlington for many years, died Saturday at his home in Baton Rouge.

Final rites took place Monday morning in Baton Rouge with services from Winnbourne Avenue Methodist Church and burial in Blackwater Cemetery.

Widely known in Methodist affairs in Mississippi and Louisiana, he was instrumental in establishing some 20 Methodist churches in the two states before retiring several years ago. He was a native of New Orleans and educated in public schools and colleges there.

In addition to the churches in Hancock County where he was pastor he served at Biloxi and Gulfport and a number in Louisiana.

He and his wife, the former Miss Sadie Stouffier who survives, had celebrated their 50th wedding anniversary only a few months ago. Also surviving are three sons, C. J. and John Preston Bonaccarrere of Baton Rouge, Donald B. Bonaccarrere of Metairie five daughters, Mrs. Frances Lawton, Mrs. J. A. Mayville, Mrs. K. E. Taylor and Mrs. C. C. Cox, all of Baton Rouge, and Mrs. T. E. Campbell of Many, La., one sister, Mrs. Joseph Collier of Los Angeles, Calif., 17 grandchildren and one great grandchild.

AERIAL VIEW OF INDUSTRIAL ENAMELING PLANT

New Industry Dedication Set

A host of dignitaries from neighboring municipalities and counties will be on hand next Wednesday for the formal dedication of the new plant of Industrial Enameling division of Industrial Electric, Inc., for which Gov. Ross Barnett will be principal speaker.

The program will get under way at 11 a.m. with Mayor John A. Scaddie delivering the welcome and Joe Bullock, director of the Mississippi Agricultural and Industrial Board, speaking in behalf of that body through which the $300,000 bond issue was floated to finance construction of the plant on Central Avenue for Bay St. Louis' first major industry.

The enameling division of Industrial Electric, which moved its operations from New Orleans to the new plant on March 12, was created in 1946. First shipment went out from Bay St. Louis on April 2 and orders have been filled to as far away points as Tucson, Ariz., Miami, Fla., Baltimore, Md., and Chicago, Ill. First local order filled was to Leo Moran's Service Station at Third and Washington Street where the porcelain enameling siding is now being installed.

Robert W. Guilbault, vice president and general manager of Industrial Enameling, said that among orders secured since the plant located here were for wall panels for a 22-story building in Louisville, Ky., and the 12-story Houston First Federal Building in Texas. Engineering details are now being worked out on both.

The Bay plant opened Feb. 19 when the sheet metal force moved in with 20 employees. Employment now numbers 130.

Canvassers Named

Cancer Crusade Is Opened in County

A local task force of some 30 men and women, part of a nationwide army of more than two million volunteers, Monday launched the American Cancer Society's annual crusade in Hancock County, Andy J. Becker, crusade chairman, announced.

The canvassers will work under the following chairman: residential—Robert Givens, Harold Kronkay, Harold Saucier, Henry Capadon, Ed Worling and Joseph Salie, all members of the American Legion, as co-chairmen; trades and industry—Joseph Bonaventura and Laverne Pahlman, co-chairmen, and Waveland residential—Mrs. Thelma Landry. Becker is asking that anyone wishing to volunteer his services in any of this area or in Lakeshore, Clermont Harbor, Kiln, Logtown and Pearlington to call him or Mrs. Becker, co-chairman, at HO 7-4030.

The volunteers have started calling on friends and neighbors with the double-barreled objective of saving lives now as well as in the future.

"Every resident in Hancock County can cooperate in this venture," said Becker, "by heeding the advice in the life-saving educational literature which volunteers will distribute and by making a generous contribution."

Right now, half of all the cancer patients who will get cancer this year could be cured if their cancers were detected and treated in time, Becker asserted. "Our immediate objective is to help save these lives—an estimated 260,000 men, women and children."

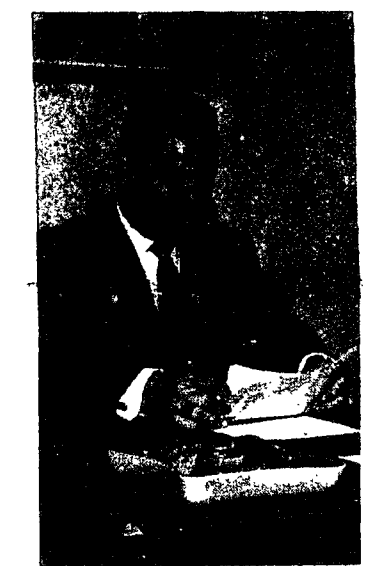

"The long-range objective," he added, "is to save the other 260,000 cancer victims who will get cancer this year. Hope for them rests with scientists who are searching for breakthroughs that will cure all types of cancer."

City Fathers Launch Annexation Procedure

City Commission Council took its first formal steps toward annexation Tuesday when it adopted resolutions calling for cooperation of the State A&I board in securing federal aid for such a study and committed itself to expenditure of its one-third share of the cost, $1,200, in the current fiscal year.

Authority was given to enter a contract with Robert Bateman, planning consultant, for the study of possible expanded corporate boundaries in view of the projected NASA test site in the county.

Bateman and James Bittling, member of the A&I board staff, met Tuesday night with the City Planning Commission to go over the annexation topic and related matters.

The planning consultant is to provide a long range project on costs, revenue and services entailed by annexation and will subject his recommendations, either in whole or in sections, to the planning commission which in turn will submit its recommendations to City Council.

Bittling took back to Jackson with him the city's resolutions seeking federal aid since the A&I board has been designated as the state agency to secure this money for development of an annexation feasibility study.

City Commissioner J. Cyril Glover said the city budget will have to be amended to provide for the $1,200 outlay this year in annexation planning.

Howard Adams, planning secretary, presided at the meeting pending election of a chairman to succeed H. H. Shanuck who has resigned.

Blood Drawing Set, New Pact

Hancock County Blood Bank last Friday night signed a contract with the American Red Cross bloodmobile unit at Mobile for storage and supply of its blood and set May 16 as the date for its next drawing with a goal of 250 pints.

Drawing will take place from 2 to 8 p.m. at the Bay St. Louis Youth Center with registered nurses from the ARC in charge, according to John D. Rutherford, Jr., blood bank president.

The new storage agreement went into effect Monday and continues through June 30, 1963. The Red Cross will make deliveries to Hancock General Hospital once a week, picking up the unused supply which has expired and replacing it with new blood. First delivery is expected shortly by Rutherford said the blood bank already has secured between 25 and 30 pints from the ARC bloodmobile which have been shipped in by bus to handle the demand. The new contract was consummated by the blood bank hospital, Hancock County chapter,

ARC and regional bloodmobile in Mobile. About 20 blood bank members were present for the meeting to complete details for the arrangement to replace that (Cont. on Page 8.)

About 2 Soldiers

Two soldiers of Christ have passed on to the life immortal in the last week.

One a Roman Catholic, one a Methodist, each in his own way labored long in the cause of Christianity, each to give us all an inner strength.

The Lord giveth. The Lord taketh away.

The Lord gave them to us. They are not gone.

Gulf Coast History

Vikings First

Five hundred years before any of the others the Vikings had sailed westward and had almost certainly set a colony on the North American continent. They had also established settlements in Iceland and Greenland; but neither the climate nor the natural resources of those northern districts were sufficiently attractive and they turned their attention to the more agreeable and profitable business of raiding the coastal people of Europe. Even when such raids became unprofitable because the people learned when to expect and how to repel them, the Vikings felt no great hankering for that land, told of in their sagas, which they had discovered half a thousand years before.

Though the Vikings had been the first to discover America their descendants were the last to attempt a colony there. In 1638 Sweden established a settlement, composed of Swedes and Finns, at Fort Christina (now Wilmington), on Delaware Bay.

However, she permitted the Dutch to swallow it up in 1655. Today the only Scandinavian colonial possession anywhere is Viking-discovered Greenland.

We see then that after the discovery of America a hundred years passed before France, England or the Netherlands gave attention to America; and then they confined themselves to the Atlantic shore above Florida which Spain and Portugal had neglected.

Two hundred years passed before France and England gave serious attention to the Gulf Coast of America. By that time not only was Spain declining but Portugal also.

The latter country, as we have seen, had led the way in navigation and had become rich and powerful; in fact, so great indeed was Emanuel of Portugal that Ferdinand of Spain gave two of his daughters to him in marriage; first Isabella, and then Mary, at a time when any other monarch in Europe would have thought himself fortunate to get one. (To be cont.)

Dedication...

Sign Division was created. As a natural complement to the overall manufacturing facilities, industrial establishments its Panel Board Division in 1958.

In response to repeated requests and suggestions from local civic leaders that one of the operations be established to Bay St. Louis, Brignac last July 6 announced the architectural procedure and the Balance Agriculture With Industry and the State A&I subsequently granted a certificate of public convenience and necessary for the industrial development of Bay St. Louis.

By a whopping 1,428 to 11 margin, voters of Bay St. Louis approved the issuance of $300,000 in BAWI bonds to purchase a plant to house the division on a long term lease after a campaign in which virtually every segment of the citizenry joined in support. Construction by Cox-Hardie Construction Co. of the plant commenced shortly afterwards, the bond issue was sold and the building completed early this year.

Brignac subsequently has indicated that if local conditions are favorable another division of the firm may be moved to the Bay.

The general public is invited to the dedication ceremony next Wednesday, to the buffet luncheon at noon and to tour the plant until 4 p.m. to see first hand the manufacturing process.

Rev. Kevin Reid, assistant pastor of Our Lady of the Gulf Catholic Church, will give the invocation and Rev. Charles R. Johnson, rector of Christ Episcopal Church, the benediction. A short talk will be given by Gullbank.

CYPREX® OUTSTANDING NEW SCAB CONTROL FOR PECANS

Cyprex — the remarkable new fungicide for pecan scab — has licked the scab problem wherever it has been used

Scab-free cluster at left was protected with CYPREX. Scabby cluster of nuts was brought from unsprayed tree for comparison.

How Cyprex keeps yields up

1. CYPREX keeps scab from attacking young nuts; keeps them from falling off.
2. CYPREX stops scab from attacking leaves, preserves leaves for food manufacture and maximum yields. CYPREX prevents scab from defoliating trees.
3. CYPREX prevents late scab attacks which can prevent nuts from filling out.

How to use Cyprex

Use 1/4 to 1 pound of CYPREX per 100 gallons of water. The number of applications varies from 2 to 6 according to weather and the amount of scab present.

Spray from first show of leaves until shuck out. Your County Agent can help you work out a scab control program with CYPREX that fits your grove and conditions.

American Cyanamid Company, Agricultural Division, Princeton, New Jersey. ©CYPREX is an American Cyanamid Company's trademark for its fungicide.

The label instructions on Cyanamid products, and on products containing Cyanamid ingredients, are the result of research and have been accepted by Federal and State Governments. Always read the labels and carefully follow their directions for use.

Life in Service Is Busy for Tyneses

A busy young couple in the service these days are Specialist Four and Mrs. Bill Tynes, son-in-law and daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. O'Farrell of Lakeshore, whose activities were the topic of a recent feature article

Gilbert E. Gibson

Gilbert Ernest Gibson, 48, of Rt. 1, Picaune, died April 15 at Crosby Memorial Hospital, Picaune, where he had been confined for six weeks. Funeral services were April 16 at Corinth Baptist Church with burial in Turtletide Cemetery.

Surviving are his mother, Mrs. Cora Gibson; four brothers, Dempsey, Henry, John D. and Willard; five sisters, Mrs. Myrtle Snellgrove, Mrs. Hulon Adcox, all of Picaune; Mrs. Louise Amacker of Poplarville, Mrs. Dolly Carbo of Houma, La., and Mrs. Helen Sagnons of Houston, Tex.

Services were conducted by Rev. R. H. Crawley, Ed Griffin and Rudolph Allen. Pallbearers were Clarence Wheat, Jack Brun-in the past newspaper at Ft. Polk, La., where they are stationed. She is the former Patsy Jean O'Farrell and his parents are Rev. and Mrs. Hubert Tynes of Poplarville.

son, Joe P. Craft, Clyde Wood, Milton Palmer and S. T. Mitchell.

Mrs. Bernard Green

Mrs. Bernard Green, 84, native of Hancock County, died April 16 at Crosby Memorial Hospital, Picaune, where she had been confined for four weeks. Services were April 17 from West Side Mission of First Baptist Church, Picaune, with burial in Red Hill Cemetery. Surviving is her husband, Bernard Green.

Msgr. Moloney...

(Cont. from Page 1.) mental in the construction of St. Francis Catholic School in Brookhaven, and Crystal Springs Catholic Church in addition to other work in the building field. He was named domestic prelate with the title of monsignor in 1954 and diocesan coadjutor and dean of the West Coast Diocese in 1958.

"One day I was a civilian. Next day I was a soldier. Then the next day my wife and I were running the guest house and the Western Union office. It was that quick." In the way Bill describes their present state which began last December.

The only kind of guests they'd cared for before were the overnight surprise visits of relatives but after 10 days of business their hotel was filled with guests and it hasn't had an empty room since. Their "hotel" is the South Fort Polk Guest House with 28 rooms.

In the daytime, Bill is IBM machine repairman for the finance and accounting sections at Polk. At night he helps his wife with the guest house, who runs that along with the Western Union office during the day.

A maid and handy-man help them at the guest house and on busy days another civilian sometimes helps them with the Western Union office. They're on duty 24 hours a day. Their home is an apartment in the guest house.

Patsy reports her big problem is reading telegrams over the telephone which are in Spanish. "The person receiving the telegram usually has no spell out the words. I murder the pronunciation otherwise," she smiles.

17 Seek Ratings In Piano

Seventeen young pianists from the class of Sister Augustine, instructor at St. Joseph Academy, have registered as candidates for membership in the National Fraternity of Young Musicians, sponsored by the National Guild of Piano Teachers of which their teacher is a member. They will play in the national piano playing auditions held in 1949 centers of the United States, trying for prizes, local and national honors which the mother organization confers according to the number of standard chords, scales and modern pieces each student can credibly perform in the presence of a jury of expert musicians.

Enter District Contest

First place winners in the Hancock County Home Demonstration Council dress rehearsal compete in the district dress competition at William Carey College in Hattiesburg on Thursday, according to Mrs. Joseph Hughes, home agent.

Tigers 4th in GC Meet

Ocean Springs captured first place Thursday night in the Gulf Coast Conference track and field meet at Perkinston, edging Long Beach 106-105 for the crown. Bay High's Tigers finished fourth in the seven-team event with 56 1/2 points.

Coach Wilmer Seymour's Tigers claimed only one first place — Donald Everett won the broad jump with an 18' 7 1/2" jump, but collected several seconds and thirds.

Billy Pahlman was second in the shot put; Lonnie Schultz was fourth in the mile run; Everett was third in the 440-yard run; Tim Fagen was fourth in the 220-yard dash; Johnny Kramer tied for third place in the pole vault; Teddo Thomas tied for fourth in the high jump; Charles Breland finished fourth in the discus; the Bay High 440-yard relay team finished third in this event.

Fourteen records were broken in the meet, several in the girls' division. In which Pass Christian won first place. Bay High will participate Friday in the District Eight track and field meet.

Schaefer Stars In Tiger Win

Richard Schaefer came through with a bases-loaded single in the last of the seventh inning here Tuesday to break a tie score and give the Bay High Tigers an 8-7 victory over Long Beach.

The Tigers built up a 7-0 lead in the first five innings only to have Long Beach knot the score in their final two frames. In the seventh, with the score tied at 7-all, Donnie Saucier led off for the Tigers with a single and Ronnie Peterson, up next, reached base safely on an error. Peterson and Saucier then executed a double steal with Leroy Luke at bat, and following that the Bearcats elected to walk Luke intentionally to pitch to Schaefer. With still nobody out, Schaefer stroked his single driving Saucier home with the winning run.

Schaefer started on the mound for the Tigers and was relieved in the sixth by Saucier who received credit for the victory. Bay High collected nine base hits.

The Tigers will return to action this afternoon on the local diamond.

4-H Boys Enter District Meets

Local 4-H boys will compete in the district crop judging and tractor driving contests next Tuesday at Laurel, accompanied by Associate County Agent John Smith.

Taking part in the crop event will be Billy Lee, Donald Koonan, Norman Ferguson and Ronald Linder with Herman Sones as alternate. Ebon Ferguson will enter the tractor driving competition.

Boxing Returns to Bay Next Friday at SSC Gym

Boxing will return to Bay St. Louis next Friday, May 4, when a team from St. Mary's Catholic Youth Organization in New Orleans, recognized as one of the top amateur ring establishments in the South, invades the local scene for several matches with the local boys, under auspices of St. Stanislaus College Sidelines Club. Action starts at 8 p.m. in the SSC gym.

Bay boxers won three of eight matches Friday night in a three-way boxing match with Biloxi and Pascagoula in Pascagoula. Local boys, under the coaching of Buck Price, who were victorious were Donald Marquar in a 95-pound bout, Jerry Cholina in a 120-pound match, and Ronnie Peterson in a 140-pound fight.

In other matches involving local boxers, Gary Marquar (85 lbs.) lost to Danny Blythe of Pascagoula via a TKO in the second round; Herbie Cholina (70 lbs.) dropped a split decision to Joe Dalgo of Biloxi; Mike Fayard (110 lbs.) lost a unanimous verdict to Eric Luke of Pascagoula; Glenn Blalze (145 lbs.) lost to Nathaniel Miller of Pascagoula on a TKO early in the third round; Frank Butterford (145 lbs.) lost on a TKO in the second round to Hudson Migue of Biloxi.

Peterson defeated Jerry Wise (145 lbs.) of Biloxi on a TKO in 28 of the third round. Cholina won a split decision over Jesse Tillman of Pascagoula, and Marquar defeated Pat Hobert of Biloxi on a split decision, accounting for the Bay victories.

Those boxers comprising the Bay team, nearly all of whom will see action against St. Mary's CYO are: Orville Ferrell and Herbie Cholina (75 lbs.); Stanley Weidman and David Marquar (90 lbs.); Donald Marquar (95 lbs.); Sidney Sandoz (100 lbs.); Johnnie Favre (105 lbs.); Mike Fayard (110 lbs.); Jerry Cholina (120 lbs.); Ronnie Peterson (140 lbs.); Frank Butterford, Donnie Bilbo, Harvey Mitchell and Larry Bilbo, (145 lbs.); Glenn Blalze (155 lbs.).

God-fearing Men

According to a number of official surveys and reports, there are no known communists in the state of Mississippi. Among the two million persons who live here, none has been converted to this conspiracy against the individual, which threatens so much of the free world.

Although there may be impoverished Mississippians — a condition upon which communism is said to feed — as far as is known not one has sought relief in the ranks of Russian socialism.

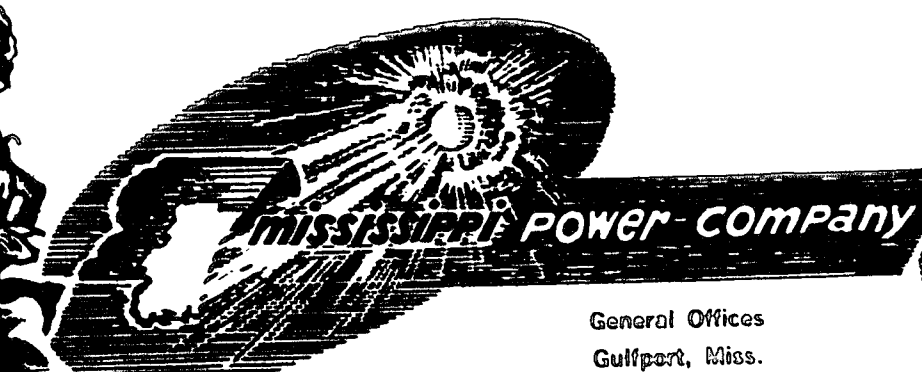

Centrally situated in that region sometimes slurringly called "The Bible Belt," our state has given birth to a God-fearing breed. Long dependent upon the soil and the elements, they have emerged as conservative, industrious, frugal, loyal Americans.

The native Mississippian has produced an enviable work record, showing more efficiency, less absenteeism, less sickness and fewer accidents. Countless employers testify that he takes a personal pride in his craftsmanship — a trait that has almost vanished in the automation of the Twentieth Century.

Springing from a heritage with deep taproots, nurtured by a devotion to the family, schooled in sound thought, spiritually anchored to an abiding faith in God, the Mississippian has evolved as a solid, worthy and well qualified type of American.

Influenced by our basic fundamentals of freedom: the home, the school, and the church, we create here a life of economic salvation and abundance.

Drum—Linda Stewart, John Nacalis, Priscilla Lee, Adron Poncey, Bob Lohrer, Carl Smith and Ray Palmer; and bells—Ann Lee.

LAKESHORE LOG

BY MRS. MALCOLM GREEN

Mr. and Mrs. Ory Lohrer celebrated their 50th wedding anniversary Sunday afternoon in the Lakeshore Civic Hall. The wedding cake, a beautiful three-tiered affair with white frosting, was delicious. About 500 people consumed quantities of punch, soft drinks, finger sandwiches and hors d'oeuvres. An old time band played all the old hoe-downs and I don't think Mr. Ory missed a one.

Eldredge Garcia and Jack Bemy both have something in common now since El celebrated his 39th birthday last week.

Melvin Lucich came home on Easter leave from Ft. Chaffee, Ark.

Mr. and Mrs. Milton Stoufflet and Mrs. Monroe Garcia motored to Baton Rouge Sunday to attend the wake of Mr. Stoufflet's and Mrs. Garcia's brother-in-law, Rev. John Bonaccarre, who expired Saturday afternoon. Rev. Bonaccarre and his family lived in Clermont for many years, and before his retirement, he was the Methodist minister for Clermont and Lakeshore. Our deepest sympathy is extended to Mrs. Bonaccarre and their daughter, Mrs.

Frances Lawton.

My nephew, Eugene Strickland, and his young wife, Helen, have a big boy, their first child born Wednesday in Baptist Hospital in New Orleans. The infant has not been named yet as all were hoping for a little girl and had little girls names picked out.

Harold Bordages and bride-to-be Eleanor O'Farrell have their apartment all picked out in New Orleans. The young couple will be married Saturday May 5 at 3 p.m. in the Clermont Methodist Church with a reception following in fellowship hall. Following prayer services Wednesday night, members of the Lakeshore and Clermont churches gave a surprise shower for the bride-to-be.

Guests of Mrs. Gordon Courage Saturday evening included Rev. Jessie Howze of Biloxi, Mortimer Lane, Mr. and Mrs. John Humberghat of Long Beach, and Eddie and Mary Mescher and three children, Larry, Glenn and Beverly of Houston, Texas. The Meschers are former Lakeshore residents, as are the Humberghats.

Teen times

Our local Easter parade was colorful and varied—churchgoers appeared even more dressed-up than usual. The new ice cream colors were popular, with the girls, topped with pastel flowered hats and of course, white gloves. Young men turned out in spring finery also—sports coats and white shirts were favored by the masculine contingent.

Vacationing paraders were also a gaily stirred group—Coleman Avenue was crowded with weekenders—a h o r r i b l e lot of deck shorts were in evidence, the street had faded costumes to spread. Sabbathers swarmed to the beaches and a good many braved the water. This year's bathing suits are brighter than ever—in shades of orange, lime, sun yellow, modestly cut in front, low, low along the spinal column.

Literally everybody came over for the holidays—some members of the younger set present were Joan and Frances Lister, Billy Bradford (Billy vacationing from St. Stanislaus where he's a boarder), Lis and David Dahlgren, Pauline Glass, Dick Blanks, Carol Rosato and her guest, Miriam; Lynn Piguet, etc.

Easter holidays were enjoyed by local college students. . . visiting Rip Kennedy, a student at L. S. U., was his cousin, Chris Stummeyer—Ulrike Winckelman, Sue Brueck, Budde Wilson and Alvin Bourgeois returned from the University of Southern Mississippi—Grace Ann Bourgeois, Pat Noonan, Randall Oringby and J. D. Bourgeois, all students at F.R.C., weekendend in Waveland. . . Joanne Laroux, of Loyola and Pete Peterson, ditto, spent the holidays with their parents. . . J. F. Anderson, also returned to the Coast from L.S.U.

Among those enjoying a beach party on the local sandbar Saturday night were Mary Lou Herlihy,

Senior Play Friday At North Central

Donald Wayne Lohrer has the role of Rodney Dadd in the play, One Wild Night, which will be presented by the senior class of Hancock North Central School at 8 p.m. Friday in the school auditorium.

Other members of the cast are Janet Shaw, Eddie Jordan, Grace Lee, Corrie Hardy, Donald Korman, Linda Lohrer, Randall Fletcher, Judy Lee, Hayward Nacalis, J. W. Farrow, Paula Dime Lee, Donna Nacalis, Flora Skayon, Brenda Shaw, E. J. Sanchez and Pat Lohrer.

Mrs. Linda R. Bourgeois is her summer "vacation" assisting Hancock General personnel in the food department.

Ann Ballou joined the ranks of Teen Times Monday, April 23.

The Topics will play for a teen-age dance at the Clermont-Lakeshore Youth Center Saturday night from 8 'til 12.

Ulrike Winckelman, a major in classics at the University of Southern Mississippi, will spend director with Mrs. Gerald Kennedy as advisor. Student directors are Kathy Lee and Edna Lee. Douglas Pippin is chairman of the stage committee assisted by Elliot MacCall, Larry Lohrer, Theresa Lohrer, Randall Fletcher and Harry Fitzhugh. Other committee members include Mary Helen Hoda and Brenda Lee, publicity: Gaynell Curran, chairman, Jonell Lohrer, Peggy Stewart and Rosemary Hoda, make up: Nelson Stockstill, chairman, Janet Shaw and Bobby Seal, publicity: Linda Stewart, sound effects, and Linda Adams, prompter.

Ushers will be Ella Mae Lohrer, Priscilla Lee, Peggy Stewart, Jonell Lohrer, O. J. Perreone, Albert Wickman, Jerry Nacalis and Nelson Stockstill.
